Presenter notes for “How Do I Love My People” - Slide #7

---

SLIDE INTENT: Discussion

Opening statement: My People.

Ask: Who are my people? Who are your people? Specifically, who are the people each of us should be loving? Let's list people either by their relationship to us or, if you want, use some actual names.

Presenter Note: Have examples ready to go.

Example: Some of my people are my kids, my spouse, my friends from school, my sister.

Example: Others are you ... my team ... my colleagues.

Example: My customers, clients, patients, students, donors.

Say: Those are all good examples.

Transition: Preparing for this {[presentation, meeting, training session]} gave me a simple way to think about my people.

Presenter notes for “Contribute” - Slide #11

---

SLIDE INTENT: Information sharing

Opening statement: Contribute. Do your work in the way that you wish others would do their work for you.

Say: Let me repeat that because it's such an important part of this overall message. We, you and me, can Love Our People by doing our work in the way that we wish others would do their work for us.

Presenter Note: Pause here a moment or two. Smile during the pause.

Transition: Because...

Presenter notes for “Everything Works” - Slide #21

---

SLIDE INTENT: Information sharing

Opening statement: Then everything works.

Say: Our relationships with each other (as a team) and our {{customers, clients, students, patients, donors}} are better. Our results are better. Our attitudes are better. We feel better. Everything is much more enjoyable.

Say: It's doing what we want others to do .... even if it is hard to go first.

Transition: These are universal ideas ... things we all want to do. But how do we start? How do we go first?
